CODE OF ETHICS

As members in good standing of the Iron County Home Builders Association, we believe in, and accept, the responsibilities and obligations inherent in the following Code of Ethics. Basic to these ethical beliefs, we subscribe to the following principals:

- To conduct business affairs with professionalism and honesty.
- To protect the consumer through the use of quality materials and construction practices.
- To meet all financial obligations in the responsible manner
- To comply with the spirit and letter of business contracts, and manage employees, subcontractors, and suppliers with fairness.
- To act responsibly, with due care, diligence, and to the best of my ability, without misrepresenting or omitting material facts or allowing my independent judgment to be subordinated.
- To keep informed regarding public policies and other essential information, which affect business interests and those of the building industry as a whole.
- To comply with the rules and regulations prescribed by law and government agencies.
- To provide timely response to items provided under warranty
- To seek to resolve controversies through a non-litigation dispute resolution mechanism.
- To provide the association with accurate, complete, objective, and timely information.
- To proactively promote ethical behavior among other Directors, Officers and Members of the Association.
- To respect the confidentiality of information acquired in the course of my duties as a volunteer member of this association. To refrain from disclosing any information obtained while acting in the capacity as a volunteer serving the association to family, friends, or any other associates, except when explicitly authorized or legally obligated to disclose.
- To support and abide by the decisions of the association in promoting and enforcing this Code of Ethics.

Members assume responsibilities in this Code of Ethics freely and solemnly and are mindful that these responsibilities are a part of their obligation as members of the Building Industry Association of Iron County.

If elected to membership, I/We hereby agree to abide by the Code of Ethics and the policies of the Building Industry Association of Iron
